Men's Dressy Suits at $15

Our confidence in the suits we present at fifteen dollars has its basis in our knowledge of how those suits are built. They are Saks-made.

That confidence is further strengthened by the rapid rate at which they are selling.

Because the man who limits his expenditure to fifteen dollars for a suit is very likely to be a shrewd buyer-he has had to be shown.

Fashioned of black thibets, blue serges, fancy worsteds and cas-simeres. Cut in the same models, and tailored by the same master-craftsmen as our higherpriced suits.
